WILL OF

ALEXANDER KENT.

In the name of God Amen, Where as I Alexander Kent heretofore being involved in pecuniary difficulties, for the purpose of securing a home and residence for myself and family, was advised that I could do so by executing a deed for the tract of land I then owned to my son George W. Kent and in the hope and expectation of thus securing my land to my family and self did execute a deed of bargain and sale to the said George W. Kent for the tract of land on which I now, and did then reside, containing about seventy acres and where as such conveyance was intended and understood wholly for the benefit and in trust for the use of me, the said Alexander Kent and in performance of such trust and understanding, I remained and continued from thence hitherto in possession of the same exercising every right of ownership over it, and the said George W. Kent never did nor hath yet sat upon or pretended any right or title in or to the same except as aforesaid to and for the use of and benefit of the said Alexander Kent.

And where as the said George W. Kent hath removed from the State some years ago and cannot now be found for the purpose of reconveying the land to me the said Alexander Kent as he would do upon my application, but believing as I do that I have a good right and title to the land aforesaid, never having relinquished possession thereof or received any valuable or bonafide consideration for the same and being desirous to dispose of same after my death to the persons here in after named.

I do therefore will and devise the afore said tract of land on which I now reside to my two grandchildren to Wit.-Nathaniel Green Daniel and Joseph Morton Daniel their heirs and assigns forever and all rights titles and interests in and to the same which I have or may have at law or in equity.

In testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand and affixed my seal this fourth day of May eighteen hundred and forty.
